

Social Justice

CCRCE Social Justice Pillars

Social justice means creating a culture where each person is free from discrimination and able to experience success. A socially just culture is more than equality and equal opportunity. It recognizes human rights and historical and current discrimination and focuses on equity, not equality.

We recognize and strive for equity over equality.

We seek to understand, even if we do not agree.

Chignecto Central
Regional Centre for Education

